

W. P. WALTON.

JOAQUIN MILLER sizes Grant up about right in a recent letter. He is not of those who are blubbering over with useless sympathy for him. With all his glorious opportunities and the wealth lavished upon him, what has this pet of the world given in return? Not a single sentence worth repeating, not a single act worthy of emulation, or of remembrance is credited to him in twenty years of indolence and luxury. "Never on earth had man such an advantage, or for half such a period of time. He chose to waste it entirely, and finally sold his great name for money which has slipped through his indolent and incapable hands. Mr. sympathy is entirely with those who have been betrayed and defrauded by the use of the great name and honors which the noble American people so generously gave him. As to whether or not he knew of what was going on, that is not important to the verdict which time must ultimately cast against him. If he did not know he should have known. His renown depends solely on having put to the sword successfully great numbers of fellow creatures. A most ordinary man, a new dust doll, deified in this pastoral land of peace, where the professional soldier with his trade of war should be made to stand far down; next, indeed, to the line of brutes where he belongs." This is pretty rough on the General, but every word is literally true. No one can glance at his history and come to any other conclusion than that he is the most arrant of humbugs the world ever produced.

In another column we give a letter which has been addressed by Mr. W. H. Miller to each member of the County Court, asking that honorable body for an appropriation of $200, to aid in making an exhibit of Lincoln County's vast resources and productions at the approaching exposition at Louisville. We trust there will be no hesitation in giving the amount. It will be an investment that will repay many fold in bringing our county, one of the very richest and most prosperous in the State, to the attention of those desiring homes or investment in lands capable of producing in abundance every variety of farm products suitable to the climate. The Exposition will be a grand affair. Let us contribute our quota to its assured success and at the same time benefit ourselves.

HARGIS' power is indeed waning when his bitter enemy, Judge Riddell, can carry his (H's) county, Nicholas, and get its unqualified instruction. The victory of Riddell is more apparent when it is known that Hargis has said that he will vote for and stump the district for a republican if Riddell is nominated by the democracy. There are forty counties in the district and at the primaries Saturday, Col. Liban Moore lead for Appellate Judge in the counties heard from, having carried Mason, Boyd, Carter, Lawrence, Johnson and Pike. Riddell was a good second, however, and bore the honors off in Montgomery, notwithstanding Col. Stone's charge, Fleming, Nicholas and got second instructions in several other counties, including Rockcastle, which gave first to Scott. The chances are strongly in favor of Riddell as the nominee.

Under the new Congressional apportionment the Electoral vote this year will be as follows: Alabama 10, Arkansas 7, California 8, Colorado 3, Connecticut 6, Delaware 3, Florida 4, Georgia 12, Illinois 22, Indiana 12, Iowa 13, Kansas 9, Kentucky 13, Louisiana 8, Maine 6, Maryland 8, Massachusetts 14, Michigan 13, Minnesota 7, Mississippi 9, Missouri 10, Nebraska 5, Nevada 3, New Hampshire 4, New Jersey 6, New York 35, North Carolina 11, Ohio 23, Oregon 3, Pennsylvania 20, Rhode Island 4, South Carolina 9, Tennessee 12, Texas 13, Vermont 4, Virginia 12, West Virginia 6, Wisconsin 11, Total 401.

THE Frankfort representative of the Courier Journal, no doubt upon the authority of Judge Hargis, whom he does not name further than to say that he is "the best informed man in that part of the State," publishes the charge that Judge Riddell and others were concerned with Cornillon in the disgrace and death of Judge Reid. This is a serious charge, indeed, and Judge Riddell owes it to himself and his constituency to demand the author and refute it if he can. It was bad enough to have for chief justice of the State, a man who was charged with perjury. It will be worse to elect a man who will succeed to that office who aided and abetted a murder.

TOM TURNER, who let us pray will always be an ex-Congressman, is shown up in a very bad light. In March last he wrote a letter to a friend in which he abused Judge Reid unparaphrased and spoke of him as "cold, selfish and mean and unable to carry his own county over a decent republican." At the funeral, however, he occupied the front row of mourners and wore more crepe on his arm than anybody. A handsome individual is the most contemptible creature that creeps the earth and in this role Mr. Turner is deserving the execrations of every man who scores an unhandered act.

JUDGE W. S. HOLMAN, whom the New York Sun so vigorously boomed for the presidency some time ago and then dropped him like a hot potato, was nominated for his eleventh term in Congress as representative of the Fourth Indiana District on the first ballot. The nomination is equivalent to an election and Mr. Holman will go back to Washington to enter his usual "I object" to any and every raid upon the treasury.

YOUR Uncle Samuel J. Tilden is just as sure to be nominated for President of these United States as the convention assembled at Chicago. That he is the first choice of the people, there is hardly a doubt. His qualifications for the office are unequalled, and as the New York Sun truthfully says, the people want him for that and because he represents and embodies those ideas of reform which they feel to be necessary to the safety and welfare of the country. They want him because his inauguration would begin a new era in our political affairs, the restoration of sound principles and honest, practical administration in every department of the government. With Tilden at the head of the ticket, victory is sure and a realization of the above hopes are assured.

THE Semi-Weekly Messenger, published at Owensboro, by Messrs. C. W. Bransford and Urey Woodson, is the largest and handsomest of its kind in the State. It is well edited and its advertising patronage shows that it is in most prosperous condition. We shall be glad to "swap" with it.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—H. B. Blanchard, coffee merchant, Richmond, Va., has failed. Liabilities $223,000.

—The entire delegation from Nebraska to the Democratic National Convention is for the old ticket.

—James R. Keene will settle with his creditors by giving notes payable in twelve and eighteen months.

—Mr. Blaine says: "I do not know that I will be nominated, but I do know that Mr. Arthur will not be."

—Bill English's son Bill won the Indiana contested seat in Congress against Peele, the sitting member.

—Carrie Best, the young widow of Stewart Best, is in custody at Nicholasville, charged with poisoning her husband.

—The French brig Senorine went ashore off the New York coast Friday night and 53 passengers and 9 of the crew were lost.

—Chas. A. Hinckley, paying teller of the West Side Bank, New York, embezzled $96,000 of the bank's funds and decamped.

—The next meeting of the Knights Templar will be at Frankfort. H. G. Sandifer, of Danville, was elected E. G. C. General.

—Tammany Hall has declared for Tilden and tariff reform. The New York State Convention has been fixed for June 18th, at Saratoga.

—The steamer Castalia, of Palermo, grounded off the coast of Spain and her cargo and 70 passengers, mostly Coolies, were drowned.

—The Mt. Sterling jail was searched on Saturday by the sheriff and three loaded revolvers were found in the possession of the prisoners.

—The secretary of the treasury wants an additional appropriation of $180,000 for salaries and expenses in the internal revenue department.

—James D. Fish, ex-president of the Marine Bank of New York, has been arrested for fraud connected with the operations of Grant & Ward.

—The six-year old daughter of William Dyke, living near Hillsdale, Mich., was outraged and then murdered, by crushing her skull with a stone.

—Two express trains collided at Savannah, N. Y., and two coaches were entirely demolished. Four men were killed and several badly wounded.

—Lightning struck a large tank of oil at the Atlantic Refining Co.'s works in Pennsylvania and destroyed oil and other property to the amount of $200,000.

—The immediate damage by the Texas floods is placed at $2,000,000, and the ultimate loss, including injury to crops, it is anticipated, will be $5,000,000.

—The Danville, Va., municipal election passed off quietly. Mayor Johnson was hanged in effigy at night on account of his recent unnecessary call for troops.

—Hon. Phil B. Thompson failed in his effort to get up his Pacific Railroad bill to amend the Thurmond sinking fund act. The vote stood—yeas 76; nays 130.

—Mr. Wm. M. Hunter, second assistant secretary of State, has entered on the fifty-fifth year of his service in that department. Evidently few die and none resign.

—At Des Moines Geo. F. Hall obtained a verdict of $1,800 against the W. U. Telegraph Co. for incorrect transmission of a message, whereby he lost that much in an oil deal.

—Col. Wm. Spence, formerly United States Marshal, who killed his son in law, Col. Wheat, his successor, March 19, was sentenced to be hanged on July 18, next at Nashville.

—Timothy Low attempted to outrage two young girls at North Andover, Mass., but failing in his purpose, he choked the elder one to death and probably fatally injured the other one.

—The Labor Bureau bill passed the Senate. It is a substitute for the House bill, with most of the practicable features eliminated, and will be shelved when returned to the House, as it should be.

—Senator Hill has completed the report of the committee on the subject of the postal telegraph. The report discourages the proposition to secure the control of the Western Union Telegraph lines.

—The latest figuring of the Arthur men in regard to the result at Chicago gives the President 375 votes certain, probable 81, grand total 456. The Blaine men must get up a new computation and they ought to be pretty quick about it.

—Ferdinand Ward, of the late firm of Grant & Ward, failing to give the required $300,000 bail, was lodged in the Ludlow street jail, New York. The room in which he is confined is the one in which Tweed died on April 12, six years ago. Ward's incarceration was hastened by the representation of certain counsel to the grand jury, in order to make any attempt at escape impossible.

—The heaviest rains on record have fallen in Louisiana during the past ten days.

—A lot of carrier pigeons liberated at Lynchburg on Saturday arrived at their home Keyport, N. J., 338 miles distant, in seven hours.

—R. A. Pulliam, of Harrodsburg, was given ten years in the penitentiary for the killing of Ki Hawkins. There were six others sent at the same term.

—Friday was another good day for the hanganian. Four murderers were dispatched in as many points of the U. S., one of whom claimed to be a preacher.

—Mary Jane Caffrey, a pretty little Irish girl was married at Trenton, N. J., on Saturday, to a New York lawyer who had fallen in love with her on the street.

—President Adam Brabender, who admits that he and the cashier of the Erie (Pa.) Savings Bank lost $100,000 in speculation, is in jail. The stockholders will lose from $200,000 to $250,000.

—Mrs. Edmont, of St. Louis, while in Rome, cut the throats of her two babies killing them instantly, wounded another slightly, and attempted suicide, and is now lying in a very critical condition.

—Jubal Early does not approve of the acceptance of a Confederate soldier's home at Richmond from Northern charity. He thinks that Mahone, like other dogs, has had his day, and that Bayard is the best democratic presidential name.

—The State Pharmaceutical Association elected Mr. Jefferson Oxley, of Nicholasville President; J. J. Brooks, Richmond, Treasurer and J. T. Cook, of Harrodsburg, Secretary. Executive Committee—C. L. Diehl, Chairman; E. Sheffer and H. Batheang.

—The negro Benjamin Johnson, who assisted Ingalls in the murder of the colored family for the purpose of selling their bodies, has been convicted of murder in the first degree. Ingalls, it will be remembered, hung himself in jail. The law will now perform a like operation for his guilty partner.

—The bill introduced in the Senate by Hawley, to provide for the payment of female nurses who served during the late civil war, provides that all such nurses shall be paid such sums of money as will bring up the amount of compensation paid to them to $85 per month for the time which they were employed as nurses.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—Ben Butler's letter of acceptance for president of the anti-monopoly party is now before the world, in which he says if the votes of the electors shall intrust me with the executive powers of that high office, each of them will be fully, justly and energetically used to make every measure of relief to the people and reform in the government pointed out by your platform of principles realities of my administration.

—It is estimated that 6,000,000 bushels of peaches will be shipped from the Delaware and Maryland peninsulas this summer. In the Delaware berry section it is predicted that 1,500,000 quarts will be marketed per day. It is predicted that 30,000 quarts of strawberries will reach Philadelphia per day from Delaware, but no fears of a glutted market are entertained.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

—The Democratic National Convention will have 13 delegates less than the Republican Convention, no representatives from the Territories being admitted to the former. It will need 535 votes to nominate a democratic presidential candidate, as the two thirds rule prevails in its conventions. About 300 of the 802 delegates have now been elected.

and it danced about as a paper blown by the wind. She placed the palm of her hand on the top of a green hickory stick the size of a walking cane; several men held the lower part of the stick stationary and the part above their grasp was twisted into splinters by the circular motion of the hand. There were other tests of a similar character. It has been but a short time since Miss Price discovered that she possessed this unknown power. She was born near Cartersville, Georgia, and is a modest, unassuming country girl, who has never been away from home until in company with her father and two neighbors named Conyer she started on the present tour. No claim is made that the manifestations are those of "spiritualism." The young lady and those who see her only know that she possesses this power and do not know what the power is.

Saw Mill For Sale!

Having determined to change my business, I offer for sale (privately) my Saw Mill, situated on Brush Creek, in Casey county, Ky. The Engine is stationary, boiler 40x24; Engine 10x20; Counter shaft 26 feet. Edging Saw and Grist Mill attached. The property is well-known and

In Good Running Order.

Timber plenty and accessible. I would be willing to exchange for good farm stock, such as Mules, Horses, Cattle, &c. Persons wishing to engage in the lumber business will find a good opening by applying to—
H. C. LOGAN,
Hustonsville, Ky.

FINE

Lincoln Co. Farm For Sale.

I offer for sale privately my farm on which I now reside, lying on the Middleburg pike, three miles from Hustonsville, containing about 340 Acres of land, known as one among the best grain and seed farms in the county. The well, plenty of water, in a fine state of cultivation; improvements good, all necessary outbuildings, two large barns fencing in first-rate order; plenty of timber on land. About 35 acres are in corn, about 45 acres in small grain and balance in grass. Also about 160 Acres of land about 6 miles from Hustonsville on Hustonsville & Radcliff pike, about 24 acres cleared, balance in timber. Would make a good little home. Also 150 acres of fine timber adjoining same, a lot of local timber on it. Also about 1,500 Acres finely timbered land lying near the road from Rolling Fork to Liberty. It is a fine body of timber and the most of it very well located for cultivation. The above named tracts of timbered lands all lie in Casey county. I will sell any or all the above lands on reasonable terms, as I am determined to sell. Any one wishing to purchase would do well to give me a call.
J. J. DRYE, Hustonsville.

G. F. Peacock

THE DRUGGIST,

HUSTONVILLE, - KY.,

—Has just received a nice lot of—

FOREIGN FRUITS.

Oranges, Lemons and Bananas.

A Large Lot of Fishing Tackle,

Poles, Lines, &amp;c.

SAMPLE BOOKS OF WALL PAPER.

KENTUCKY CENTRAL R. R.

"Blue-Grass Route."

Shortest &amp; Quickest Route

Central Kentucky to All Points

North, East, West &amp; Southwest.

—Fast Line Between—

LEXINGTON &amp; CINCINNATI.

Schedule in Effect May 11, 1884.

SOUTH-BOUND.

No. 4, No. 6, No. 12

Daily, Ex. Sun. Ex. Sun.

Lvs. Lexington 8:10 p.m. 8:20 a.m. 2:00 p.m.

Arr. Cincinnati 9:20 p.m. 9:55 a.m. 3:35 p.m.

Lvs. Cincinnati 10:10 p.m. 11:15 a.m. 4:41 p.m.

Arr. Lexington 11:15 p.m. 11:35 a.m. 5:17 p.m.

Lvs. Lexington 11:15 p.m. 12:40 p.m. 5:25 p.m.

Arr. Cincinnati 12:40 p.m. 1:25 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Cincinnati 12:40 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Lexington 1:25 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Lexington 1:25 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Cincinnati 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Cincinnati 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Lexington 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Lexington 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Cincinnati 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Cincinnati 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Lexington 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Lexington 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Cincinnati 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Cincinnati 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Lexington 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Lexington 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Cincinnati 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Cincinnati 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Lexington 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Lexington 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Cincinnati 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Cincinnati 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Lexington 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Lexington 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Cincinnati 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Cincinnati 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Arr. Lexington 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

Lvs. Lexington 2:00 p.m. 2:00 p.m. 6:20 p.m.

